DETAILED ACTION

On February 12, 2007, an Office Action was sent to the Applicant rejecting claims 1, 3-18, 22-26, and 28-30. On May 14, 2007, the Applicant responded with arguments.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 3-18, 22-26, and 28-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Risafi (6,473,500).

Risafi discloses a method and corresponding system for using a prepaid card comprising for transferring value from a first value provider to a second value provider, wherein each of the first and second value providers stores value on behalf of customers, receiving a request initiated by a value owner to transfer value from the first value provider to recipient the second value provider in a converted form, wherein the value owner is one of the customers of the first value provider, receiving the value from the first value provider with an exchange provider in response to the request, wherein: the exchange provider is different from the first value provider and different from the second value provider; and the exchange provider includes a processor configured for conversion of the value into the converted form, determining an exchange rate for the value with the processor of the exchange provider, converting the received value with the processor of the exchange provider to the converted form in accordance with the determined exchange rate, and transmitting the converted value from the exchange provider to the recipient second value provider (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); the request is issued by the value owner to the first value provider (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); converting the received value comprises extracting a transaction fee (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); the received value and the converted value comprise a common value type (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); authenticating at least a portion of the request with the first value provider (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); issuing an identifier to the value owner with the processor, such identifier being sufficient to identify the converted value by a customer of the second value provider (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); receiving the request comprises receiving an interactive-voice-response instruction (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); receiving the request comprises receiving an instruction over the internet (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); receiving the request comprises receiving DTMF tones (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); at least one of the received value and the converted value comprises non-monetary value (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); at least one of the received value and the converted value comprises mobile-phone minutes (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); at least one of the received value and the converted value comprises travel points within a mileage program (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); the converted value comprises cash (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); verifying an identity of the value owner (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); verifying the identity of the value owner comprises comparing a PIN provided by the value owner with a stored PIN (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); verifying the identity of the value owner comprises comparing a biometric feature of the value owner with a stored representation of the biometric feature (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65); and wherein receiving the value from the first value provider, converting the received value, and transmitting the converted value are performed recurrently in accordance with the request (col.3, line 53 to col.5, line 17 and col.16, line 10 to col.17, line 65).

Although the Examiner has pointed out particular references contained in the prior art(s) of record in the body of this action, the specified citations are merely representative of the teachings in the art as applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim. Since other passages and figures may apply to the claimed invention as well, it is respectfully requested that the applicant, in preparing the response, to consider fully the entire references as potentially teaching all of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior arts or disclosed by the Examiner.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1,3-18,22-26 and 28-30 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
